About Me

Hi! I am currently a 2nd year Interior Design student at the University of Huddersfield. The interior design industry has so many opportunities for me to widen my knowledge and learn new skills. Being someone who loves learning new things and striving to do the best, this is a perfect sector to work in. I enjoy being creative and using my design skills to come up with innovative concepts that have exciting experiences and make you say WOW. I am reliable, organised and motivated and loves to learn new skills. I am looking forward to my career as an interior designer.
